Subject: Program Description of Undergraduate Certificate in East Asian Studies

The Undergraduate Certificate in East Asian Studies is a 24-credit course of instruction designed to provide specialized knowledge of the cultures, histories, and contemporary concerns of the peoples of China, Japan, and Korea. It will complement and enrich a student's major. The curriculum focuses on language instruction, civilization courses, and electives in several departments and programs of the University. It is designed specifically for students who wish to expand their knowledge of East Asia and demonstrate to prospective employers, the public, and graduate and professional schools a special competence and set of skills in East Asian affairs.

The Coordinator of the Undergraduate Certificate Program is Dr. Michele Mason. You can contact Dr. Mason at mmmason@umd.edu (email) or 301-405-3745 (phone).
